

GUIDE TO AUTHORS

(Journal of Agricultural Science and Environment)

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Authors should submit electronic copy of the manuscript to:

journals@funaab.edu.ng and unaabasset@yahoo.com.

Correspondence should be to:

The Editor-in-Chief,
Journal of Agricultural Science and Environment,
Federal University of Agriculture,
P.M.B. 2240, Abeokuta, Postcode
110001. Ogun State, Nigeria.

Papers published in the Journal should be based on original research or continuation of previous studies that are reproducible. Papers to be published in the Review Section should be authoritative, topical and very current.

Manuscripts should be typed on A4 (216 x 279 mm) paper, double spaced with wide margins (2.54 cm) and line numbered where possible.

Text: Should appear in the following order: Title, Authors' names, Address of Authors, e-mail address and Telephone number, Abstract, Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results, Discussion, Conclusion, Acknowledgements, References. Tables, Figures Legends and Figures should be embedded in the relevant section of the text. Main section headings should be bold, centered and upper case letters. Do not underline the title or section headings. Subsections may be included and only the first letter of the subsection should be capitalized. Avoid excessive and unnecessary fragmentation of the paper.

Use SI units of measurement, and italicize all Latin words and scientific names. Use numerals before standard units of measurements, e.g., 3 g, 9 days; 36 hrs; otherwise use words for numbers one to nine and numerals for larger numbers. For commonly used terms and abbreviations, consult the latest edition of Council of Biological Editors. Non Standard abbreviations should be avoided, and where used, they should be explained at their first mentioning.

Title: Should be brief and reflect the main theme of the paper.

By – Line: Authors' names should appear below the title and below which the institutional address and e-mail should be typed.

Abstract: An abstract in English should include key words, arranged alphabetically using only the first letter of the key words. Abstracts should be limited to < 200 words, and should contain salient features of the study, briefly indicating method of study, results, and the main conclusion. Single solid lines should separate the by – line material from the Abstract, and the Abstract from the main text. A short running title should be included. Six (6) key-words should be typed in.

Introduction: Provide a survey of literature and clearly justify the need of the study.

Materials and Methods: This should be informative enough to enable readers to interpret the results obtained. Particular attention should be paid to the design, analysis and statistics.

Results: Should be concise: Avoid reproducing information already in tables.

Discussion: This may be combined with results but generally should be separate. It should indicate clearly the significance and implications of the results obtained. Inferences and opinions should be distinguished from facts, and should not duplicate results except to introduce or clarify points. Reference should be made to published literature.

Conclusion: The paper should draw major conclusions from the study or alternatively, the Discussion section may end with concluding remarks from the study.

Acknowledgements: Financial contributors, pre-paper reviewers, etc. should be acknowledged.

References: Only articles or books published or "in press" may be cited. Copies of the publishers' letters of acceptance should accompany all such citations. The reference list should be arranged alphabetically. Authors should be referred to in text by names and year (Harvard system). References should be as current as possible.

Examples:

Personal communication may be cited only in the text, giving names, date, and institution or organization of source of information.

Tables and Figures: Tables and Figures, self-explanatory, without reference to the text or other tables and figures captions, should be brief but adequately describe the contents. "The Tables should be numbered in Arabic numerals and should follow the page in the text where they were referred to. Figure captions should be typed on a separate sheet of paper. In the text, spell out the word Table but abbreviate Figure to Fig. Capitalize the first letter of table column and row headings. Footnotes are designated with superscript lowercase letters.

Graphs should be boxed and ordinates and abscissions marked with index lines. Illustrations should be in black and white and of a size that allows a reduction of up to 50%. If color prints are necessary, the cost of production will be charged to the authors. Figures should be numbered on
